

Sheet of review

Title of reviewed article: .....

.....

1	Is the problem being presented in the article significant for science?
2	Does the paper bring new ideas to the subject literature?
3	Is the paper an original study (it means, it is not the compilation of former known publications)?
4	Is the aim of article clearly specified and realized?
5	Does the paper's title match its content?
6	Has the question been presented in a comprehensive way?
7	Does the article have a logical layout?
8	Is the article volume adequate (not too extensive)?
9	Is the subject bibliography sufficient?
10	Do conclusions result from the content?

Suggested corrections (can be noted in text):

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Other remarks:

.....
.....
.....
.....

CONCLUSIONS: (please outline the proper)

1. The article is worth publishing in author's version with possible small changes.
2. The article is worth publishing after corrections suggested by the reviewer.
3. The article is not suitable for publication.

.....
(Date)

.....
(Signature)